The Way We Were

Students have regularly participated in activities to celebrate Book Week. During the 1990's Mrs Pam Kelly was the teacher-librarian. She decorated the school library, hosted book week parades and enthusiastically promoted reading.

One year the students in 5/6J entered a competition to win an author for a day. They designed a board game with a six sided playing board and made playing cards and tokens. They wrote a manual with instructions for the game and recorded a radio play onto a cassette. And.........

Emily Rodda, author of the Deltora Quest series, came to QPS for a whole day. She worked with 5/6J students teaching them writing techniques and talked with other students in the Library.
